

Please do not be fooled
by our new look!

Navigation through this site is unchanged and Administrative functions are the same. We've simply refreshed, decluttered and added a few enhancements to facilitate the flow throughout our website.

We are no longer "The ESport Project", we are now, simply ESport, an established employability preparation toolkit, with new features and success stories! We thought that our new status deserved a fresh look and we hope that you approve.

You will find a more in depth look at the ESport website's new features on the following pages.

Your feedback is always appreciated!

Welcome back & Logon,

The ESport team

Our new look has new features!

Occupational Profiles

are up-to-date

HRSDC recently released 60 new Profiles.

We immediately added these to ESPORT!

Users can now create portfolios for any of 279
B-level, C-level, and D-level occupations.

(See list of new occupations on next page)

Each of these new Profiles links to the most recent Job Futures.

Check out latest salaries, requirements,
and prospects for employment.

Authentic Materials are aligned to the new occupations.

Practise your skills with materials from the job site.

*Additional matches have been added
for unsupported occupations*
